

Why bees matter

85% plants exist because of bees.

More than 100 food crops are pollinated by bees.

Bees are responsible for food quality and safety.

We can thank a pollinator for as much as 1/3 of all food we eat!

You can thank bees for the grasses that feed our cows.

Without them there would be no milk or cheese.

+

+

=

